GRAND JURY HOLDS MILLER FOR TRIAL

Treasurer of Building Association Indicted.

COLLIER HELD FOR MURDER

John P. Triller Also Indicted for Marder in First Degree-William A. Barrett Must Stand Trial on Perjury Charge-True Bill Against Richard Osborne, Alleged Crook.

Charged with concealing the books of the First Co-operative Building Association of Georgetown, of which he was secretary-treasurer, John Barton Miller was ndicted by the grand jury yesterday.

The indictment is in one count. After describing the association and its records, it charges that on June 25, 1908, John Barton Miller unlawfully, willfully, and with intent to defraud and injure the said association and the stockholders and members The most stylishly cut and most thereof, did take away and conceal each carefully manufactured clothing of the said books hereinbefore in this indictment particularly described, each of said books being the writings, records, and property of the association and its answer to the same charge in Police Court, gave $5,000 bail for his appearance Criminal Court Books Removed from Safe.

Proceedings against the building assoclation were begun last July by several stockholders who asked the appointment of a receiver to wind up the affairs of the association. An answer declaring the institution to be solvent and to have assets worth $200,000 was prepared by counsel for the directors. The night before the answer was to be filed, it was suggested that the safe be opened. This was done for the purpose of examining the books, Miller, it is said, naving the key. The books were found to have been removed.

With the consent of the directors, the sociation was placed in the hands of a receiver, William E. Ambrose being appointed by Justice Wright. In answer to a rule to show cause why he should not produce the books, Miller admitted they were not in his possession, but declined to answer more fully. A warrant was issued from Police Court. charging the destruction of the books, under which charge Miller gave ball and has since been at liberty.

Collier Held for Murder.

A true bill was returned against John W. Collier, former policeman in the Fifth precinct, charging him with murder in the first degree in connection with the killing of the captain of the precinct, William Mathews, on March 5 last, in the captain's room at the station. Collier has maintained silence regarding his case since the night of the shoting.

John P. Triller was also indicted on a charge of murder in the first degree. He s charged with killing his wife's grandmother, Lucretia Corliss, at her home, 612 L street southwest, on January 20 last. William A. Barrett was indicted on harge of perjury in connection with a civil service examination. An indictment charging libel of another lawyer was re-turned against George F. Ormsby, of the Alleged Crook Indicted. The alleged larceny of a ring valued at $1,000 from F. Warren Johnson, a local pswnbroker, is the charge in an indictment against Richard Osborne, said to be a well-known New York crook. Henry Johnson and C. G. Kelly, believed to be confederates of Osborne, were indicted on several charges of housebreaking and

Other indictments were returned as follows: Harrison Saunders, housebreaking; Charles A. Sarber, false pretenses; Charles R. Davis, embezzlement and larceny; Fred. E. Pierce, false pretenses and forgery; David Sterling, attack on girl; Lewis Carter and Alfred Cole, housebreaking and larceny; Russel Hanson forgery and uttering; Joseph Sprigg, larceny; George Pappas, assault with dan-gerous weapon; Robert Brown, larceny from United States; William Johnson, depredation on private property; Thomas Nixon, larceny; Joseph Lee and Frank Johnson, violating sections 5457 and 5458, Revised Statutes of the United States; Charles Robinson, statutory charge; James Adams and George Ford, houseproperty; Lemuel Jackson and John Montgomery, depredation on private property; Eugene O. The collection of popular-priced Hats we are showing portrays the newest creations for this season in not only Hats of our own make and conception, but exact copies of the finer and higher-priced models of Parisian origin. We have been told by scores of women that nowhere may be seen an equal assemblage of Trimmed Millinery at the same prices. This is the verdict from fashionable, particular, discriminating women. Not a worthy idea that Fashion sanctions is missing from our stock. Other stores may show as many Hats and equally fine and beautiful millinery, but their prices are very much higher. Here you will find masterpieces of millinery genius, priced in a practical, sensible manner.

You Will Marvel at Our Brilliant Showing of TRIMMED HATS

Hats of every size, shape, color, and effect—Hats for every possible occasion. You will see here styles such as you would find elsewhere marked $10 to $15 and more, offered at our famously low prices of $4.98, $5.98, and $6.98
